ME.KUBE

Kube is the operative office collection dedicated for a minimalistic design, featuring a square shaped leg.

A light structure with thin and strong surfaces is a good solution to maintain functionality and durability of the product.

Kube can be integrated with any storage and cabling solutions.

The solid and strong structure makes it the ideal product for benching and meeting table solutions.

The modularity and the easiness of assembling, makes the product reconfigurable by everyone and perfect for offices and companies in a constant growth.
